

Statement of University Policies

While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of information provided in this catalog, Sacred Heart University reserves the right to make changes at any time without prior notice. The University provides the information in this catalog solely for the convenience of the reader, who may not rely upon it as a legal obligation, and, expressly disclaims any liability that may otherwise be incurred.

The University is committed to the concept of equal educational opportunities for all. Individuals are considered for admission to student status, and all services, facilities, programs and activities are administered in a nondiscriminatory manner without regard to race, religion, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, age or handicap.

The institution complies with the Family Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, which defines the rights and protects the privacy of students with regard to their educational records.

The University is an Equal Opportunity Employer and conforms to the regulations and policies of Affirmative Action and Title IX. It does not discriminate in its employment practices on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, age, sex or handicap.

Sacred Heart University is committed to the maintenance of a community environment where respect for the dignity and worth of each individual is demonstrated and where diversity and the free exchange of ideas can flourish. The maintenance of that community requires its members to avoid behavior that creates division, to promote behavior that enhances cooperation among groups and to encourage the development of each person as a unique individual.

The University does not condone racism, sexism, intolerance or any other acts of discrimination. The University is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.
