

Club Update

The Criminal Justice Club recently sponsored the Criminal Justice Forum on Wednesday, March 4th, which was open to the public. The purpose of the Forum was to invite law enforcement officials to come and speak about their personal experiences and the practices which occur in law enforcement. You can read more about the Forum below.

The club is currently working on its new website that it hopes to have up by the end of March. Visitors will be able to find out about the club and its members. The website will also list upcoming events the club has planned. The club also plans to visit the Stamford Superior Court in Stamford, CT and the Bridgeport Correctional Center in Bridgeport, CT in the coming weeks. Spaces are limited to members in the Criminal Justice Club. If you are interested in going on a trip or joining the club, you should contact the club's Vice President, Matt Napolitano, at napolitanom@sacredheart.edu.

In April, members of the club will be taking a trip to Washington D.C. On the trip, the club will have an opportunity to visit Arlington National Cemetery, the U.S. Supreme Court and the White House. The members will also tour the Pentagon and the U.S. Capital, among other popular sites and tourist attractions.

Criminal Justice Forum

Nearly 100 people attended the Criminal Justice Forum. A majority of the audience consisted of Sacred Heart students, but there were also several faculty and staff members present. The club President Lando Cox gave a welcome speech and moderated the Forum. The speakers on the panel included Anthony Davila, a Detective from the Bridgeport Police Department, Marc Lorenti, the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security for JFK International Airport, Thomas Wuennemann, Captain of Administration for the Stamford Police Department, Debbie Gutierrez, a Trooper for the Connecticut State Police, and Paul Healy, the Executive Director of Emergency Management and Public Safety at Sacred Heart University. The panel members took questions from the audience and stayed around after the forum to answer further questions. The Criminal Justice Club would like to thank the Department of Criminal Justice, the Department of Public Safety, and the Office of Career Development for their assistance with the Forum.

Health & Safety Tips

- Drink plenty of fluids- do not let your body get dehydrated
- Reduce stress- spend at least 30 minutes a day doing something you like
- Check to make sure your doors and windows are properly secured when you are not near them
- Wear your seatbelts at all times when you are driving- make sure the passengers in your vehicle are as well
- Avoid taking up more than one parking space- park in between the lines
