  - b. Member chapters will be invoiced no later than one week after Bid Day with formal notice passing to the chapter from the Vice President of Administrative & Financial Affairs to the Chapter Delegate.

c. Chapter dues must be paid within two weeks of the date on which the invoice is sent to the Chapter Delegate. If the dues are delinquent as of two (2) weeks' time from that date, an additional $200 will be added to the delinquent dues every week thereafter. However, the concerned fraternity shall be responsible for all business approved and conducted by the IFC, unless voting status is assessed by the judicial board due to lack of payment.

Article VI: Academic Policy

Academic Requirements

- A. All Fraternity members must maintain the minimum GPA standard set forth by their chapter to remain in good standing.
- B. Each member fraternity must meet or exceed all men's undergraduate cumulative GPA as outlined in the Standards of Excellence.
- C. Corrective Actions
  - a. For the first semester that a chapter fails to meet all men's undergraduate cumulative GPA, they will be placed on Academic Probation. This first probationary period will involve monthly academic meetings between the IFC advisor and the respective chapter Scholarship Chair to formulate a new plan of action. The IFC Advisor will contact national headquarters for academic assistance.
  - b. For the second consecutive semester that a chapter fails to meet the all men's undergraduate cumulative GPA, they will be placed on a Probationary Period. In addition to monthly meetings already established between the respective chapter and the IFC advisor will work to offer new academic outlets for members' individual needs. Dues are subject to increase $5 per active member in compliance with noticeable lack of chapter efforts. The IFC Advisor will contact national headquarters voicing further concern and for additional academic assistance.
  - c. For the third consecutive semester that a chapter fails to meet the all men's undergraduate cumulative GPA, the IFC will then ask each individual member who has a cumulative GPA below that chapters minimum academic requirement to disaffiliate from their respective organizations. If the members do not disaffiliate, the IFC may then contact the organization's national headquarters, or recommend the revocation of IFC membership.
  - d. Any additional dues collected due to probationary periods will be budgeted back into related programming events.

Article VII: Recruitment Bylaws

Definitions

- A. Recruitment shall be defined as the process of soliciting unaffiliated full-time undergraduate students for the purposes of attracting future members.
- B. Recruitment events shall be defined as activities or events with the implicit or explicit goal of recruitment, in which chapter funds, or funds organized or collected by members of the chapter on its behalf, as used; and/or those events sponsored by the IFC or chapters with the explicit goal of recruitment.
- C. A bid shall be defined as an invitation, explicit or implicit, made to an unaffiliated student to join a chapter.
- D. The IFC grace period shall be defined as the time during which the fraternities are recruiting and not able to offer bids, with the exception of colonies.
  - a. The fall grace period begins on a date specified between the IFC Advisor and the Vice President of Recruitment.
  - b. The spring grace period begins on a date specified between the IFC Advisor and the Vice President of Recruitment.

Purpose

- A. To establish a concrete and consistent recruitment process for fraternal life on campus.
- B. To ensure an equal opportunity for all fraternal organizations to recruit men who will benefit each fraternity's beliefs and conduct.
- C. To set a reliable recruiting calendar that can be depended upon by the entire campus community.
- D. To provide and allocate the proper resources and information to all chapters participating in recruitment.
- E. To make a visible and credible source of positive values on campus.
- F. To advocate for the overall experience of fraternity knowing that membership in any member fraternity is better than no membership at all
  - a. In joining one member fraternity it is the understanding that you are part of the greater IFC Community.

Eligibility

A. Chapters

- a. Chapters in good standing with both the University, their inter/national headquarters, and the IFC may participate in recruitment.
- b. Potential Members
  - i. All first-year students are eligible to participate in fall recruitment and join a fraternity with a minimum cumulative high school GPA of 2.5.

- ii. If a student has already established an undergraduate GPA, then the student must have at least a cumulative 2.5 GPA to be eligible to join a fraternity.
  - Grades will be verified by the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life and be made available to the chapters through the Fraternity Recruitment Registration System.
- iii. All potential new members must be eligible to join a student organization at Sacred Heart as outlined in the Sacred Heart Student Handbook.
- iv. All potential new members must register for fraternity recruitment through the online registration/distribution system in order to be eligible to receive a bid.

c. Standards

- i. Recruitment Events
  - 1. All chapters must have all of their recruitment events registered and approved through Sacred Heart event registration process at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the event.
  - Chapters are not permitted to host recruitment events before the conclusion of the IFC-sponsored events at the beginning of each recruitment period.

d. Guidelines

- i. Women are not permitted to be involved with fraternity recruitment or attend chapter recruitment events. This includes but is not limited to sweethearts or any other woman:
  - 1. wearing clothing/accessories that can be associated with the fraternity while the fraternity is actively recruiting;
  - appearing in recruitment videos with the exception of women who may be captured in the frame of a photo/video clip filmed at an appropriate event sponsored by a Sacred Heart organization; and/or
  - 3. any equivalent actions.
- ii. The IFC Executive Board will review and approve all recruitment video content for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the above guidelines.
- iii. Women are permitted by the IFC to wear fraternity letters or shirts of any kind outside of the IFC grace period, except for at official chapter recruitment events. They may have stricter requirements from their own organizations, Panhellenic, or NPC.

- iv. Men may join an organization as long as they have a cumulative GPA that meets the requirements of the IFC (2.5) and is in good standing with Sacred Heart University.
- v. IFC and chapter recruitment shall remain an alcohol- and drug-free process throughout the calendar year.
- vi. At no time should any member of a fraternity use alcohol or drugs to recruit men, regardless if the individual is of legal age to consume alcohol.
- vii. All recruitment tools, including apparel, novelties, posters, banners, and schedules must represent fraternity and sorority life in a positive manner, keeping in mind that recruitment materials represent the entire interfraternal community.
- viii. Recruitment materials displaying drug/alcohol references, references that could be construed as using women to recruit, etc. are subject to review by the Vice President of Judicial Affairs.
- ix. During recruitment events, chapter members are expected to communicate in a way that avoids negative connotations and properly represents the fraternity and sorority community. Examples include but are not limited to: formal, social events, new member education, etc.
- x. Current fraternity members are not authorized to initiate conversation with potential new members during the bid-accepting period.
  - If initial contact is made my the potential new member signyfying the acceptance of a bid, the current fraternity member may respond appropriately and accordingly.
- e. Distribution and Acceptance of Bids
  - i. Bids may not be given in either the fall or spring semester until the final day of the IFC grace period.
  - ii. After the IFC pre-recruitment event period has finished, there will be a maximum of a fifteen (15) class day grace period where chapters can hold recruitment events but not give out bids.
    - 1. Colonies/associate chapters are not subject to this restriction on bid distribution.
  - iii. Bids may not be given during school recess.
  - iv. After voting occurs and bids are extended and accepted, a roster of new members must be submitted to the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life by the date determined by the IFC Advisor.
  - v. When extending bids to potential new members, chapters must follow all IFC and Sacred Heart University policies (see the Student Handbook).

- vi. All potential new members who are issued a bid to membership from a fraternity, must accept or decline their bid between 10am-2pm through the electronic bid distribution system on the designated Bid Day.
  - 1. If a PNM does not accept or decline their bid in the provided timeframe the bid is null and void.
- vii. Chapters are not permitted to enter on-campus residence halls in order to distribute bids, per University policy.
- viii. All bids must be distributed and accepted through the IFC electronic bid distribution system.

f. Education and Initiation

- i. Each member fraternity will have alcohol- and drug-free pledge/associate/new member programs.
- ii. Chapters may not formally or informally educate a new member/pledge/associate member during any school recess.
- iii. Each member fraternity's associate/pledge/new member program must last no longer than six (6) weeks.
- iv. The Initiation date must be set by the chapter and communicated to the new members and IFC Advisor one week after the chapters give out their first bid.
- v. A new member/pledge/associate member may be initiated whenever he has met the requirements of the fraternity to which he is seeking membership within the maximum 6-week time frame.
- vi. All men must be initiated within the semester they accept their bid.
- vii. Following each semester's recruitment process, all new members must complete the online sexual assault, domestic violence and stalking prevention module through Blackboard. Because this module is required for all incoming first-year students to Sacred Heart University, any new member who joins a fraternity in the fall semester who completed the module over the summer will not need to retake the module. For any new member who joins a fraternity in the spring semester, or is an upperclassman of sophomore, junior or senior status joining a fraternity in either semester, the module would need to be retaken. Chapters must have no less than 90% of new members complete the module each semester. If the completion threshold is not met, the member fraternity responsible will be fined by a maximum amount of $300.00. The exact amount will be determined by the current IFC President. This fine may not be appealed.

viii. All new members must attend a general new member meeting after bids are distributed/accepted. This meeting will be held by the current IFC Advisor. Date and time will be coordinated by the IFC Advisor to all chapters.

Article VIII: Hazing

The Sacred Heart University IFC stands behind the University's Policy Statement on Hazing: Sacred Heart University makes every effort to create an environment that is fair, humane and respectful for all students, faculty and staff and works to ensure that academic and co-curricular activities enhance the growth and development of all students. Therefore, and in accordance with state law, Sacred Heart University prohibits hazing of any member of the Sacred Heart community by any organization, student athletic team, group of students or individual. Please see the Sacred Heart Student Handbook for an expanded Definition of Hazing, as well as Connecticut General Statutes § 52-53a, which defines hazing as a criminal offense.

Article IX: Expansion Policies

Open Expansion Policy

- A. Sacred Heart University does not permit open expansion.
- B. Any fraternity wishing to establish a chapter at Sacred Heart University must contact the IFC President and IFC Advisor.

- F. Review and selection process should include an on-campus visit and presentation by interested fraternity to the campus community

Colonization Procedures

- A. Once a chapter is selected for colonization the IFC Advisor will work with the IFC Vice President for Recruitment & Public Relations to determine the colonization timeline.
- B. IFC member fraternities and members of the IFC are expected to aide in the colonization process and help chapter acclimate to the university
- C. The IFC Vice President of Recruitment & Public Relations will work with IFC Advisor and colonizing organization to assist with the publicity.

- D. The Vice President of Recruitment & Public Relations will aide in the creation of a list of names of interested men for the new fraternity.
- E. The IFC will provide statistics and information regarding the current IFC community, campus climate, and any other reasonable information requested.

Stipulations

- A. The IFC Vice President of Recruitment & Public Relations will send current IFC member fraternities a list of men who have accepted bids during the colonization.
- B. Once a man has accepted a bid to the colonizing fraternity he is an ineligible candidate for recruitment into the other member fraternities.
- C. Per the North American Interfraternity Conference expansion policy, no member fraternity shall inhibit or diminish the colonization efforts or success of the colonizing fraternity.
- D. All members are expected to show support and respect to the colonization efforts of new colonizing fraternity.
- E. Once the fraternity has been established with a founding class and officers appointed they are required to follow the same attendance/member policy, including payment of dues, for the IFC as standing members.

Article X: Parliamentary Procedure, Policies & Amendments

Parliamentary Procedure

- A. These Bylaws shall supersede all previously existing Bylaws of the IFC.
- B. If not in violation of the Constitution, Bylaws, or other rules of the IFC, Roberts Rules of Order, newly revised, shall be followed in matters of parliamentary procedures.

Policies

The IFC may create polices, rules, and procedures to promote positive roles and images of member chapters and the Fraternity system. These documents may concern topics that include, but are not limited to, hazing, new member development, alcohol use, neighborhood standards, etc. These policies must pass by an 80% vote of the chapter delegates.

Recommendations and guidelines may also be created by a majority vote, but do not have the same weight as policies or standing rules, which are enforceable through the officers or IFC Judicial Board. Any policy, rule or procedure passed by the delegates is binding on all members.

Amendments

Changes to the Bylaws may be adopted with an (80%) vote of the active member fraternity's delegates in good standing.

Enactment

A. If a majority delegate vote passes, in order for the amendment process to be finalized, the document must be hand signed by the current IFC President and Executive Vice President. Both signatures are required to pass the amendment. If both signatures are not obtained the amendment is tabled until another vote can take place at least 2 weeks after the current one.

- B. If one of the two required signatures above are of someone who has lost or is unable to fulfill their duties, the next officer in the line of succession will assume that role and sign for them.
- C. This Constitution was amended by the IFC Assembly on: 4/25/2025
