

2025-2026 Verification Worksheet V1 Directions – 2023 Income

Your application was selected by the U.S. Dept. of Education for review in a process called Verification. You must submit the last 5 pages of this verification worksheet and provide Income Verification from 2023, along with 2023 W2s (non-tax-filers only).

IRS Income Verification:

- Tax filers directions are on pages 1 and 2.
- Special Circumstances directions are on page 3 (Examples: 2023 Active Tax Extensions, Identity Theft, and Non-IRS Income Tax Returns and IRA Rollovers and Pension Rollovers)
- Non-tax filers directions page 4 (also must submit all 2023 W2s or equivalent)

Tax Filer Directions: Income Verification – 2023 Tax Year

IRS Income Verification for tax filers can be obtained in two different ways: Option 1 - IRS Direct Data Exchange (FA-DDX) process through FAFSA; as part of federal student aid eligibility, students, spouses (as appropriate), and parent(s) (as appropriate) are required to consent and approve sharing and importing income tax information from the IRS to the FAFSA form or confirm non-filing status, even if the attempt to obtain or use such data is ineffective. In other words, if the student and spouse (if applicable) or if the parent(s) filed separate 2023 IRS income tax returns, both must provide consent and approval to share and import income and tax information from the IRS. In most cases, no further documentation is needed to verify 2023 income information that was transferred into the student's FAFSA using income and tax information directly from the IRS. (Note: If you reported any Foreign Income Exclusion on your FAFSA, and did the IRS Direct Data Exchange (FA-DDX) we will require the tax transcript and or tax return with all schedules) Option 2 – If the 2023 income tax return information for the student (or spouse, or parent(s), if applicable) was not available or could not be used, you can then request a Tax Transcript through the IRS.

For families with special circumstances, such as filing tax extensions (Form 4868), victims of identity theft, non-IRS income tax returns, and IRS Rollovers and Pension Rollovers, please see the section on special circumstances on page 3.

Option 1: IRS Direct Data Exchange (FA-DDX) process through FAFSA

The most efficient way to verify income is by using the IRS Direct Data Exchange (FA-DDX) process through FAFSA.

If you were unsuccessful in transferring your tax data through the IRS Direct Data Exchange (FA-DDX) through FAFSA or you amended your tax 2023 federal tax return, please also submit to our office:

Option 2: IRS Tax Return Transcript(s) or a signed copy of the federal income tax return (and applicable schedules)– 2023 Tax Year

If the 2023 income tax return information for the student (or spouse, or parent(s), if applicable) was not available through IRS Direct Data Exchange FA-(DDX) process through FAFSA or could not be used, you can then request a Tax Transcript through the IRS.

- Online Request
Go to the IRS Website, click "Get Transcript by Online" or "Get Transcript by Mail." Be sure to request the "Return Transcript" and Tax Year "2023"- NOT the "Account Transcript."
